2019 Regulations – Entertainment Guidelines

The Stallholders' Committee of the Eltham Market Stallholders Association Incorporated is responsible for the smooth operation of the Eltham Community Craft and Produce Market.

The Committee recognises that entertainers contribute positively to the atmosphere of the market and have agreed upon a set of busking guidelines to facilitate a successful event.

All entertainers wishing to perform at Eltham Market are required to apply to the Committee. Applications must be submitted no later than 1st of each month and entertainers must agree to comply with the following regulations:

- Entertainers are wholly responsible for all claims made against them for personal injury or property damage and agree to indemnify the market against such claims.
- Entertainers who attend the market and do not hold public liability and personal insurance do so entirely at their own risk. The Committee of Management does not accept any liability arising from the activity of entertaining or use of any associated equipment.
- Entertainers who have been granted approval must operate in the market between the hours of 10 a.m. and 12.30 p.m, which includes a 30 minute break.
- Sound performers will be sited at least 30 metres away from each other and are required to act respectfully and cooperatively with each other whilst engaged at the market.
- Entertainers should operate at a level so that the sound is not so loud that a passer-by would have to strain their voice to be heard
- The sound levels from an entertainer's performance shall at no time disrupt market business trading.
- If the noise output generates complaints or is determined to be intrusive, the entertainer must immediately turn it down to a level acceptable to the Coordinator.
- Entertainers are responsible for maintaining pedestrian flow and public amenity at all times. They must ensure free and safe access for pedestrians along thoroughfares near the performance site. Wheelchair access must be maintained at all times. Where necessary, entertainers will direct the crowd to facilitate such access.
