Clause 1: General

The stallholders' committee of the Eltham Community Craft and Produce Market Stallholders' Association Incorporated is responsible for the Market administration. The following regulations apply:

- The Committee reserves the right to move any stallholder to another site if it is deemed to be for the benefit of the market.
- Paying a site fee does not entitle a stallholder to ownership of a particular site.
- All goods offered for sale must be hand-made, hand-crafted or home-grown by the stallholder.
- The stallholder must not remunerate anyone in the making of items.
- The copying of another stallholders work and/ or selling of goods commercially optioned is unacceptable and will result in dismissal from the market.

Clause 2: Conduct and Standard

To maintain the high standard of the market, the Committee reserves the right to refuse entry to the Market to any stallholder:

- Whose goods have significantly deteriorated in quality.
- Whose goods differ from the original list of goods.
- Whose behaviour is considered antisocial, derisive, aggressive, offensive or otherwise inappropriate in the option of the Market Co-ordinator.

In the event of breaches of Clause 2:

- A verbal discussion will take place between the Market Co-ordinator and the stallholder.
- If the stallholder fails to adjust their stall (or behaviour), a formal request in writing will be forwarded to the offender(s) by the committee.
- If this written request fails, and the stallholder does not comply with the desired improvement, then that stallholder will be denied any further access to the market in their capacity as a stallholder.
